- shall not by virtue of that capacity in any way (whether directly or indirectly) determine, or materially influence in any way the determination of the nature or the amount of any benefit or advantage or income or the circumstances in which it is or is to be received, gained, achieved, afforded or derived by that person.
- A person who in the course of and as part of the carrying on of his or her business of a professional public practice shall not, by reason only of his or her rendering professional services to the Society or to any company by which any business of the Society is carried on, be in breach of the terms of this Rule.
- i) The Committee shall not lend money nor lease property or assets at less than current commercial rates; and shall ensure that receipts by way of interest or rent are not at less than current commercial rates (having regard always to the nature and terms of the loan or lease) to any person who is:
- (i) a Member or Committee member of the Society; or
 - (ii) a shareholder or director of any company carrying on any business of the Society; or
 - (iii) a settlor or trustee of any trust which is a shareholder of any company carrying on any business of the Society; or
 - (iv) an associated person (as defined by the Income Tax Act 1994) of any such Member, Committee member, shareholder, director, settlor or trustee, referred to in paragraphs (i) to (iii).
- j) Any Committee member who is in any way interested or concerned directly in any property or undertaking in which the Society is or may be concerned or involved, shall disclose the nature and extent of their interest to the Committee, and shall take no part whatever in any deliberations of the Committee concerning any matter in which that Member is or may be interested, other than to provide a quorum.

11. TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP

- a) Any member may resign from the Society at any time.
- b) Unless the Committee otherwise determines in any particular case, membership of the Society shall cease immediately where a member fails to pay the subscription due within three months of their renewal date.

12. WINDING UP

- a) The Society may at any time be wound up by the resolution of a simple majority of the Members present at any General Meeting of the Society. Notice of the passing of such resolution shall be given by the Committee to the Registrar of Incorporated Societies.
- b) If upon the winding up of the Society or upon its dissolution by the Registrar of Incorporated Societies, there remains (after satisfaction of all its liabilities) any property whatsoever, the same must not be paid to or distributed amongst the Members of the Society, or any of them, but must be given or transferred to one or more charitable institutions or clubs within New Zealand having objects similar to or in sympathy with the objects of the Society, or to one or more charitable funds or causes within New Zealand the purposes of which are likely to further or be in sympathy with the objects for which the Society is constituted. The recipients must be determined by a majority of Members present in person at a General Meeting to be held in accordance with these Rules at or before the winding up, or the dissolution and in default of the recipients being determined in the above manner, then the recipients are to be as determined by the High Court of New Zealand.

13. GENERAL

A copy of the Rules and any bylaws for the conduct of the Society shall always be available for inspection by Members upon request directed to the Secretary.

14. INTERPRETATION OF RULES

Should any matter arise which has not been provided for in these Rules or should any question occur as to their interpretation, the Committee shall consider the same and its determination on the matter of omission or interpretation shall be final and binding on all Members.
